

OHS Heritage Conservation Award Recognizes the Outstanding Work of Sedgwick Marshall Heritage Homes Ltd

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Ontario Historical Society is pleased to present the 2020-21 Heritage Conservation Award to Sedgwick Marshall Heritage Homes Ltd (SMHH) for their continued dedication to the preservation of significant heritage buildings in Milton and Brampton. The Heritage Conservation Award recognizes an exceptional contribution towards the conservation, preservation, or restoration of built-heritage or natural-heritage in Ontario.

Since 2002, Mandy Sedgwick and Mirella Marshall, the two principals of SMHH, have worked to save threatened heritage homes from invasive development. SMHH works with developers and municipalities to guide the process through the heritage planning stage, the moving of the building, and reconstruction and completion. The company works closely with master tradespeople in full restoring the buildings, adding modern amenities for life in the 21st century (in areas of the house that are not visible from the street), and then designating the buildings under the Ontario Heritage Act. Their work ensures that these stunning heritage buildings will be enjoyed and looked after for generations to come.

The OHS Honours and Awards Committee is pleased to recognize Sedgwick Marshall Heritage Homes Ltd.
